Khatam-e-Khwajghan

اللَّهُ هُوَ

This Khatam-e-Khwajghan Sharif is extremely potent collection of award (invocations) to attaining the presence of the heart. A powerful process for making individual or collective dua in congregation to Allah ﷻ, when faced with any difficulty and to advance the individual's spiritual growth.

The words of Khatam-e-Khwajghan is a combination between Arabic and Persian word. The word khatam means seal and al-khwajghan is derived from singular Persian word alkhawajah meaning master. Thus the combination of Khatam-e-Khwajghan signifies the meaning 'Seal of the Masters'. When performed the Khatam-e-Khwajghan has a collection of supplications from the Qur'an, ordered and enumerated by the Khwajghan (the Spiritual Masters), to raise the devotee from the lower realities into the Divine Court to present his/her requests.

The Naqshbandi Masters ritualize Khatam-e-Khwajghan not only for removing the dangers and obtaining goodness but to obtain by means of all the Masters in order that their supplication to Allah ﷻ is weighty and favourable. Furthermore, it establishes a strong union between the disciple's heart and its Master's heart. This makes the rites of the Naqshbandi Order distinctive from the other Orders' rites.

So, it is concluded with the reading of the sacred Shajrah Sharif, the spiritual chain, a spiritual lineage all the way back to our Master Sayyidina Rasool'Allah ﷺ, and ultimately the connection to our Creator, Allah ﷻ.
